De-identified Summary of Complaint

The Complainant reported that his sister received a Highway Traffic Act ticket, for having illegal tint. The Complainant alleges he asked to speak with the police officer's supervisor and was ignored. The complainant alleges that at the end the interaction the officer asked if he still wanted to speak to his supervisor, the Complainant said yes and the officer proceeded to roll up his cruiser window, smile, waved and drove off laughing.

Unsubstantiated Code of Conduct Allegations

CSPA O/Reg 407/23 sec.10 conduct undermines public trust

Decision and Reasons

Statements were obtained from two police officers and the complainants sister. No evidence was presented that the officer laughed at the complainant.

The complainant was unable to provide any evidence of his allegations.

A review of procedure occurred and it was determined that the officer was not required to produce his supervisor simply because one was requested.

This allegation is unsubstantiated.
