

DISCLAIMER: In accordance with the Community Safety and Policing Act and the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, the summary below has been de-identified to remove the personal information of individuals, including public complainants and persons who were the subject of the investigation.

DE-IDENTIFIED SUMMARY UNDER SECTION 167(2) OF THE CSPA

Original Police Service: [REDACTED]

Date of Complaint: [REDACTED]

Type of Investigation:

Referred to Same Service: ☒

Referred to Other Service: ☐

Retained by LECA: ☐

Service Investigations Referred to:

De-identified Summary of Complaint

The Complainant alleges that [REDACTED] Police officers unlawfully apprehended the Complainant under a Provincial Offences Act statute (Allegation 1), unlawfully influenced and allowed others to influence the outcome of the investigation (Allegation 2), and neglected to conduct a thorough investigation in relation to a Criminal Code complaint (Allegation 3).

Unsubstantiated Code of Conduct Allegations

Unnecessary Force - Section 11 Community Safety and Policing Act CSPA
Conduct That Undermines Public Trust - Section 10 CSPA
Neglects To Do Duty - Section 19 CSPA

Decision and ReasonsAllegation 1) Unnecessary Force

The evidence available to the investigator consisted of Body Worn Cameras, witness statements, duty notes, and call history information. Based on this evidence, the officers had lawful authority to apprehend the Complainant under a Provincial Offences Act investigation.

Allegation 2) Conduct That Undermines Public Trust

The evidence available to the investigator consisted of Body Worn Cameras, witness statements, duty notes, and call history information. Based on this evidence, there is insufficient evidence to establish that misconduct occurred.

Allegation 3) Neglects To Do Duty

The evidence available to the investigator consisted of Body Worn Cameras, witness statements, duty notes, and call history information. Based on this evidence, there is insufficient evidence to establish that misconduct occurred.

Conclusion: The allegations against [REDACTED] Police officers has been concluded as UNSUBSTANTIATED.