Unsubstantiated Code of Conduct Allegations

Undermine Public Trust - Section 10(1) CSPA

Decision and Reasons

Undermine Public Trust

Section 10(1): You are alleged to have committed misconduct in that, you conducted yourself in a manner that undermined, or was likely to undermine, public trust in policing.

It is alleged that the RO was harassing the Complainant and inappropriately driving a marked scout car while in [REDACTED] Park

This investigation has revealed the officer was in the lawful performance of their duties and acted in accordance with all governing authorities. The RO responded appropriately to a radio call regarding issues with cyclists and drove at an appropriate speed while in the park conducting traffic enforcement. There is no evidence the RO brake checked the Complainant, drove erratically or harassed cyclists.

Based on the available information, the Investigator has concluded that there is insufficient evidence to establish reasonable grounds that misconduct has occurred.

Therefore, the allegation is unsubstantiated.
