Decision and Reasons

The Investigator found that the Respondent Officers did thoroughly investigate the Complainant's report and reviewed all available evidence. The Respondent Officers determined the evidence did not support a criminal charge and decided not to take further action. The Complainant was dissatisfied with the Respondent Officer's decision. There is no evidence to support the claim that the Respondent Officers conducted a neglectful investigation. The Investigator concurred with the Respondent Officers' assessment that criminal charges were not warranted in this case. The Complainant was provided adequate updates on the status of the investigation.
