De-identified Summary of Complaint

On August 24th, 2025, the complainant alleged RO1 and RO2 unnecessarily tackled, handcuffed, and mistreated him while he was walking home after an argument with his ex-partner. He claimed he was not intoxicated and that the officers used excessive force and acted unprofessionally.

Unsubstantiated Code of Conduct Allegations

CSPA section 10 - Conduct undermines public trust
CSPA section 11 - Unnecessary Force

Decision and Reasons

RO1 and RO2 grounded the complainant and handcuffed him. The force used was minimal and necessary to effect the lawful arrest in a safe manner. The complainant reported no injury and was driven home and released without charges.

There was no evidence RO1 and RO2 engaged in any acts meant to ridicule or threaten the complainant, or causing the complainant's loss of his personal phone.

The allegations were unsubstantiated.
