De-identified Summary of Complaint

The COMPLAINANT was sleeping in a makeshift shelter when he alleged police officers disturbed his peace and assaulted him.

The COMPLAINANT also alleged his property was stolen by officers and not returned to him when he was released from custody after he was charged and pleaded guilty.

Unsubstantiated Code of Conduct Allegations

CSPA O. Reg 407/23

Section 10(1) - Conduct undermines public trust

Section 11 - Unnecessary force

Decision and Reasons

The investigation determined that all property which had been seized was properly dealt with and eventually returned to the complainant.

The investigation determined that the force used by the officers was reasonable and justified.
