| The complainant alleges that an unknown officer shared details of his criminal past with his ex-girlfriend, who then used the information to attempt to have him arrested. |

Unsubstantiated Code of Conduct Allegations

Section 16 - Improper use of position
Section 18 - Access, collect, use, reatin or destroy information

Decision and Reasons

Several respondent officers were identified as having queried the complainant during the involved time period. Each officer had a lawful reason for conducting the query related to their assigned duties. There was no evidence that an officer shared information with anyone outside of the police service.
