Decision and Reasons

Allegation 1 – CONDUCT UNDERMINES PUBLIC TRUST – Unsubstantiated

The respondent officer attended the school as a result of a formal complaint sent to York Regional Police regarding illegal parking causing unsafe traffic issues at the school. The complainant was parked illegally in front of the school and was motioned multiple times to move their vehicle. The respondent officer was not getting any response from the complainant and could not see in the vehicle due to tinted windows. The respondent officer opened the door to communicate with the complainant about moving their vehicle. The officer's actions did not constitute misconduct and was only to have the complainant move their vehicle from the no parking zone.
