De-identified Summary of Complaint

The Complainant alleges he and his son were assaulted. Officers were negligent in their investigation and did not provide him timely updates on the investigation.

Unsubstantiated Code of Conduct Allegations

Performance of Duties Section 19

Undermine Public Trust Section 10(1)

Decision and Reasons

The Respondent Officer investigated the Complainant's report of being assaulted. The Respondent Officer determined there was no reasonable prospect of a conviction and used his discretion to choose not to take further action. The Complainant was the initial instigator in this matter.

The Respondent Officer did not immediately contact and update the Complainant of his investigation. The Respondent Officer did eventually contact the Complainant and update him. The delay in contacting the Complainant would not be considered misconduct.
