

LECA Complaint Form

The Law Enforcement Complaints Agency (LECA) deals with complaints about the conduct of provincial and municipal police officers in Ontario, special constables with the Niagara Parks Commission, and peace officers in the Legislative Protective Service.

Complaints about a member of a police services board, the adequacy and effectiveness of policing provided by a police service, or the failure of a police services board to comply with the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 (CSPA) and its regulations should be made to the Inspector General of Policing.

Personal Information Collection and De-Identified Statistics

Under the authority of the Anti-Racism Act, 2017 (ARA), the Law Enforcement Complaints Agency (LECA) is obligated to collect personal information from members of the public who make a complaint to LECA. Under the Ontario Regulation 267/18, LECA is required to collect race-based data on: 1) Indigenous identity, 2) race, 3) religion, and 4) ethnic origin. This information will be used to satisfy the requirements of the ARA and corresponding regulations. The sole purpose of the collection of this personal information is for eliminating systemic racism and advancing racial equity.

LECA will de-identify personal information collected under the ARA, and may use the de-identified statistical information for the purposes of satisfying LECA's mandate under the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 including sections 132 and 133. This de-identified information may also be used to meet LECA's mandate, for program development and to improve service delivery.

Answering these questions is completely voluntary. No program, service, or benefit will be withheld if you do not provide or refuse to provide the personal information requested. Your decision will not affect any service provided or decision made by LECA. Personal information collected under the ARA will not be shared with police services or police services boards or any other entity, person or party, except as permitted or required under section 7(14) of the ARA.

You may also access and correct your personal information or withdraw your consent by contacting our office. As an agency of the government, LECA adheres to the requirements of the ARA and the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, 1990 (FIPPA).
